

Proclamation
The City of Stillwater
OKLAHOMA

WHEREAS, the residents of Stillwater, Oklahoma, place high value on local control of community services and have thus chosen to operate a community-owned electric utility; and, as customers and owners of this electric utility have a direct say in utility operations and policies; and,

WHEREAS, Stillwater Electric Utility provides homes, businesses, social service, and local government agencies with reliable, efficient, and cost-effective electricity employing sound business practices designed to ensure the best possible service at competitive rates; and,

WHEREAS, Stillwater Electric Utility is a valuable community asset that contributes to the well-being of local residents through financial support of the general government, including public safety, transportation, parks, library, and recreation; and,

WHEREAS, Stillwater Electric Utility is a dependable and trustworthy institution whose local operation provides many consumer protections and continues to make the community a better place to live and work, and contributes to protecting the global environment; and,

WHEREAS, Stillwater Electric Utility will continue to work to bring low cost, safe, reliable electricity to community homes and businesses just as it has since 1901 when the utility was created to serve all residents of Stillwater; and,

WHEREAS, the Stillwater community joins hands with more than 2,000 other public power systems in the United States in this celebration of public power.

NOW THEREFORE, I, William H. Joyce, proclaim the week of Oct. 2-8, 2022 as Public Power Week to recognize Stillwater Electric Utility for its contributions to the community and to educate customer-owners, policy makers, and employees on the benefits of public power.
