- a. Income statement month-ending May 2018 (SRAA-18-34)

Mr. Johnson states the May income statement is still looking strong. Working with CMO office and finance is very helpful through the last month of our fiscal year. We were able to paint the runway and purchased the departure terminal.

Congratulations to Melissa Reames, recently appointed as Deputy City Manager/CFO.

b. Approve Bid of 4-22 Rehabilitation (SRAA18-35)

Paul announced the bids for this project were higher than originally anticipated. Cost overruns are largely due to the project being completed during overnight hours so we do not interrupt commercial and day-to-day operations.

The Base Bid and at least one of the alternates is required to construct the project. The base bid includes all paving and supporting costs. Alternate 1 brings existing lights up to grade and Alternate 2 includes the addition of new LED lighting, cans, conduits and wiring. Since the total project costs have exceeded the grant amount FAA is seeking additional AIP funds to cover the full cost of the project Alternate 1 or 2 as we work to see what the possibilities are.

Russ recommends we accept the bid for purpose of pursuing the options to move it forward administratively; subject to available FAA funding and approval by City Council.

MOTION BY TEUBNER, SECOND BY FLEISCHER FOR APPROVAL TO APPROVE BID WITH SUITABLE OPTION.

ROLL CALL VOTE: YEA— FLEISCHER, SMITH, TEUBNER AND TOWER. ABSENT—SHULTZ AND WEAVER. NAY—NONE. ABSTAIN—NONE. MOTION CARRIED WITH FOUR YEA VOTES.

c. Approve LBR, Inc. Amendment #7 (SRAA-18-36)

Paul explains that Amendment No. 7 for the LBR engineering contract provides services associated with the Rehabilitation of RW 4-22, like inspection, testing, administration, and survey of RW 4-22. Funding is programmed with FAA AIP Grant #3-40-0090-026-2018 and will go to City Council for approval.

MOTION BY SMITH, SECOND BY FLEISCHER FOR APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT NO. 7.

ROLL CALL VOTE: YEA— FLEISCHER, SMITH, TEUBNER AND TOWER. ABSENT—SHULTZ AND WEAVER. NAY—NONE. ABSTAIN—NONE. MOTION CARRIED WITH FOUR YEA VOTES.
